Oggetto: For information: Changes to the Consolidated United Nations Security Council Sanctions List
The United Nations Security Council Subsidiary Organs Branch (the Secretariat) automatically conveys updates to the Consolidated United Nations Security Council Sanctions List, to States, regional and sub-regional organizations by e-mail shortly following updates made to a sanctions list maintained on the Secretariat's website.

The relevant updates being conveyed were made on 16 January 2016 pursuant to resolution 2231 (2015) by which the Security Council decided that Member States shall no longer freeze the assets and ban the travel of 36 individuals and entities specified in the attachment to Annex B of that resolution as soon as the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) confirms to the Security Council that Iran has taken a series of nuclear-related actions called for by resolution 2231 (2015). A report confirming this fact was submitted to the Security Council by the IAEA on 16 January 2016.

An updated version, in English, of the Consolidated United Nations Security Council Sanctions List is accessible in XML, PDF and HTML formats at the following URLs:

In accordance with paragraph 7 of resolution 2231 (2015) the provisions of resolution 1737 (2006) and other relevant resolutions have been terminated. Accordingly, the Security Council has made practical arrangements to directly undertake the tasks specified in resolution 2231 (2015), including, the maintenance of the list of individuals and entities to whom an assets freeze and travel ban continue to apply. This list is now available on the Security Council 2231 (2015) website: <http://www.un.org/en/sc/2231/>. The 2231 List is available in XML, PDF and HTML formats.

All States are encouraged to allow implementation of updates to Security Council Sanctions Lists based on e-mails, soft-copy notices, or website postings.

Member States are invited to submit any updated or new contact information for this purpose to the Secretariat by e-mail to sc-sanctionslists@un.org or by fax to +1 212 963 1300/+1 212 963 3778.

Kindly reply to this message if you wish to be un-subscribed from this mailing list.
